The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) is excited to announce the 2022 Battle of the Books! Battle of the Books is a collaborative project between NOLS and schools in Clallam County, including homeschool students. Starting in February, Library staff will hold monthly book chats with fourth-grade students, including an after school discussion group via Zoom. Participants will receive free copies of the three books to keep. Applications will be available from 4th grade teachers, online at nols.org, or pick one up at your local NOLS location. Applications are due Tuesday, February 1.

Students will read the following titles during the Battle of the Books program:

February: Stella Díaz Has Something to Say by Angela Dominguez

March: Dragons in a Bag by Zetta Elliott

April: The Cardboard Kingdom by Chad Sell

A final trivia competition will be held on Zoom on Friday, April 29 from 6:30-7:30pm.

For additional information, call 360.417.8500, send an email to youth@nols.org, or visit www.nols.org. This program is generously supported by local Friends of the Library groups.

Battle of the Books 2022 is coming!
