My husband and I were reared in homes in which education was highly respected. Our parents made tremendous sacrifices for our education during the depression when the struggle for a bare existance required great effort. They had one goal in mind however, that of the education was the key to a better way of life. Thus we find it very difficult to understand the lack of local value on the priceless educational opportunitics that at should be given without hestitation | Althous in the wind in the sympathy and consideration.
