Clallam Bay Hit With Robberies

by Carole Helmick

Clallam Bay was the scene of four robberies Thursday night, Dec. 5, Larry's Clallam Bay Chevron station, owned by Larry Konopaski, was broken into sometime between 12:15 p.m. when he closed and 6:30 a.m. the next morning when he opened. Mr. Konopaski reported that he thinks approximately $180.00 worth of tools and money were stolen.

The Frontier Garage, owned by Don Doran, was also broken into sometime after Mr. Doran closed at 9:00 p.m.

He reported that the garage was broken into, but as far as he knows, nothing has been found missing.

Fitzpatrick's Tavern, owned by Mr. T. J. Fitzpatrick, was broken into after 1:15 a.m. She reported no liquor or cigarettes stolen, and no money other than that in the music and pin-ball machines was taken.

Watches, alarm clocks and a jar of peppermint sticks were also missing. Mrs. Fitzpatrick told of a woman who heard a car stalled between 2:30 and 3:00 a.m. in the alley behind Larry's Clallam Bay Chevron station and close to the Frontier Garage. She feels this car may have had something to do with the robberies.

The Clallam Bay School also had some trouble. 2-1/2 dozen eggs taken from the kitchen were thrown through the kitchen and the halls of the school. The culprits also broke into Mr. Darling's office, which was locked. They were unable to get into the safe, but they found an empty cash box in a closet. No money was taken except nickels from a dispenser machine.

As of Monday morning, Dec. 8, the culprits had not been apprehended.

Short Comings

Two school teachers were cranking up the chain saw to clear a tree that fell in the driveway during Sunday night's storm.

A Port Angeles group is offering a special bus to transport children home for the Christmas holidays from the Rainier School at Buckley. If interested, call Mrs. G. W. Peyton in Port Angeles, phone 457-7427. The bus will bring them home December 21st and return to the school January 2nd.

Managed to sneak into Alice's Style Show held at the Vagabond Friday. They didn't model any bathing suits at this show. Shucks Next year they should have one for the men. How about that, men!

Steelhead fishermen are finding excellent results in local waters when the water conditions are suitable. The fish are running on the small side, 4-8 pounds, but Ron Shearer nailed an 18 pounder.

High School Burglarized

Forks High School was burglarized sometime Sunday evening according to information obtained from school officials.

The building was entered possibly by way of an open window or key because there was no indication of forcible entry. The main high school office was entered and the office apparently searched for money.

The door to the principal's office was forced open by the use of a prying implement of some type. The principal, Mr. James Traver, found keys scattered over his desk. A master key obtained from his desk drawer was apparently used to enter other rooms in the building.

A file cabinet in the teachers room was sacked and the coin box on the pop machine was pried open.

The library was entered and coins taken from a pencil dispenser. The art room was also entered and searched.

According to Mr. Traver, there was no vandalism so the burglars were apparently after money.

Christmas Concert Dec. 18th

The annual Forks schools Christmas concert will be held Wednesday, December 18, at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

The high school, junior high and elementary bands and high school chorus will perform under the direction of Mr. Robert Jones.

The chorus, some 40 strong, will sing "Winter Wonderland," "A Mighty Fortress is our God," "Noel, Sing We Now Christmas," "O Holy Night," and Forks area has had two short snow periods the past week and just enough to offer the younger people the winter playtime fun. Snapped this photo of a snowman in the Garbrick yard on Calawah Way Friday.

Annual Banquet Held For Little League

Revolving Trophy - Members of the Packers and Giants grasp the revolving trophy at the Little League banquet. The two Forks teams played to a 6-6 tie this season. Players left to right are Ron Archer, John Leppell, Steve Bunge, Jeff Blair, all Giants, and Ken Olson, Harrison Davis, Mark Soderlund and Bill Stager, Packer players. Coaches Joe Polk, Bob Bent, Carter Warren, Norm Bagby and Bill Peterson look on.

Over 100 players, parents and guests attended the West End Little League football awards banquet held Friday evening.

The Little League ballplayers were given certificates by the respective coaching staffs.

Two improved player awards were presented. Carter Warren, Packer Coach, presented his team's award to Harrison Davis, Joe Polk, Giant Coach, presented his team's award to Mark Henry.

A group of players from each team presented their respective coaches with small football trophies of appreciation for their fine efforts and understanding.

West End Little League president, Bob Swerin, acted as master of ceremonies for the banquet. Vice-president, Ralph Hill, presented the revolving trophy for the winner of the game between the two Forks teams. This year the trophy goes to both teams after the Kings X game ended in a 6-6 tie. The Packers won the trophy last year.

Bob Swerin expressed the appreciation of West End Little League, Inc., for the cooperation of parents, ballplayers, ambulance service, officials and everyone in general for contributing to the success of the program.

The banquet featured a spaghetti dinner prepared by Kay Klahn. The tables were attractively decorated in a Christmas theme by a committee headed by Carol Olson and Lillian Mast. Edna Leppell was general chairman.

The Bogachiel Garden Club will again sponsor the Christmas Trail Contest this year, with prizes as in other years for the best house and yard display, best window, best door and single scene.

Scoring will be as follows: ORIGINALITY (New methods of display, clever use of material, appropriate to season, good taste) - 25 points. LIGHTING (Color attractive, enough light, high lighting display) - 25 points. HARMONY (Do all parts of the display add to the whole effect? Is there a continuous theme? Is the display balanced?) - 25 points. TIME and EFFORT - 15 points. VISIBILITY (Is the display clearly visible to the public?) - 10 points.

All entries must be made by noon on Dec. 23 by calling either Mrs. E. C. Gocherell, 374-6533, or Mrs. Bert Maris, 374-6426. Entrants should save this clipping if they intend entering so they will understand the scoring system.

The elementary band is scheduled to play selected numbers.

The junior high band will play "Christmas March," "Air for Band Highlight," "Blue Nocturne," and "A Swingin' Safari."

The high school band will play "Everything's Coming Up Roses," "Manhattan Beach," "Songs of Jupiter," "Harlequin" and "March Lamar."

Sunset Highlites

Only a couple more weeks and old St. Nick will be with us again. The years are going by so fast, it seems like the white whiskered old gent is here every other week or so. Everybody will be home this year except our son, Doug, who will be spending Christmas with the Air Force in Germany. Last letter we got says he bowled another 600 plus. Keep it up, son.

Mother and Darrell have been decorating the alleys in preparation for the coming holiday, and it looks mighty nice. Sure like to see Santa bring a bagful of 200's, 300's, 600's and a few 700's for the leagues.

Margaret Windle topped the Tue. Afternoon League with a 187-481. Barbara Whitte picked off the 6-7 split and Ollie Swearingin the 4-10.

The Sunset men were led by Fred Jarvis with 210-595 and Sandy Floe who came in with a 212-501.

Chuck Lanwell watched me pick up the 6-7-10 split and then proceeded to do the same himself. Copy-cat!

Some pretty fair bowling amongst the Powder Puffs. Leta Rondeau had hi 10 of 211 and a 553 series. Jerry Beebe had hi 30 with a 588 and Sally Nagel ripped out a nice 532. Jim Rondeau took top honors in the Wed. Boys Banquets with a hi 10 of 155 and hi 20 of 298. Rocky Coffey was close behind with 145-267.

Joanne Hjelmseth shot a 202 for high game in the Hoot Owl League and Leta Rondeau high series with 487.

The Jr. Mixed on Thursday had Fatty Lawwell on top again for the girls with a 128-245. Hil Horton was next with 127-338. For the boys, Mike Absher tossed a 168 and Mark Henry a 419.

Jean Streeter and Anne Meadler tied for hi 10 in the Women's Thursday Night League with 189 and Leta Rondeau had a 538 hi 30.

Lee Cheek rattled the pins for a 224 for the West Enders while Jim Hjelmseth came up with a 222-502.

For the girls in the Early Fri. Mixed, it was Jerry Beebe, 185, and Maureen Anderson, 485. And for the men, Darrell Thomas, 222, and Fred Jarvis, 564.

Mother Jarvis rolled a 200 even and Sally Nagel a 502 for the Late Fri. Mixed and Father Jarvis had a 255-574 to top the men. Harold Kennedy and George Rieckman both picked off the 6-7-10 and Don McCoy the 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10.

Darlene Engesth led the Mini-Squad in both the hi 10 and hi 20 departments with 110-210.

The Harro's had both shots at the bag Jackpot at Sat. Night Monte Carlo, but didn't deplete it a bit. And so it gets ever larger. Vern Bondau won nine free games for himself. Better come down next Sat. folks, and maybe you can win some boot.

Mills began finally get going in the Sunday Mixed and topped it with a fine 217-500. Joanne Hjelmseth had a 182 and Sally Nagel a 411.

Bruce Rose, Log, won three sums in front of Little Log, in the Forks Tennis League. Linn Cox and Ross' boys took 3 from the Ladies 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10 and had 5 guys smashed them by taking three, two 1-2-3 and Saxe 1-2-3-4.

George Richardson tolled the bag game for the night, a 232 and Fred Jarvis knocked over 300 pins for hi 30.

FJH Splits With Q of A

Fork and Queen of Angels split in Junior high basketball action here last week. Queen of Angels rolled to a 55-29 win in 8th grade action.

Queen of Angels behind the scoring of Tom Fryer, moved from a 28-20 halftime lead and Forks Thumps Wishkah.

Fork had everything going its way as they walked over the Wishkah loggers, caks and all, in a 73-36 victory.

The tall timber from the North Country was more than the loggers could handle.

Twelve Spartans hit the scoring column paced by a 16 point effort of Mike Price and 18 rebounds by Rich Liles. Scoring: Forks (73): M. Price 10, J. Price 15, Liles 12, Spoelstra 4, Gale 2, K. Let's Go Fishing by Bob McLaughlin

HUNTER HUNTING
Some guys catch lunkers as if fish didn't come in any other size, while most of us work hard to catch the ones that are deers by comparison, and then feel pretty lucky.

To a successful "lunker hunter" luck plays a minor role, so the fishing authorities at Mercury outboards. Seeking out the big fish is a deliberate undertaking, requiring both a knowledge of fish and an unwavering devotion to the prop. A fish of that size is worth a hundred of the lesser brethren.

While lunker-catching proficiency doesn't come overnight, there is one basic rule the aspiring might keep in mind: "locate the lunkers."

Lunkers, like gold, are where you find them. This can be in the most unprofitable quarters, usually outdoors where no visible signs are a clue to a big spot beneath the surface.

To find such locations, there are usually quite small, walk-off casters that project through a great deal of barren water. Slow trolling on the bottom or drift casting is the best bet.

When a fish strikes, mark the exact size immediately for future reference. This means taking out one or two small objects that you can find at night. A single line may hold most lunkers until the next day, but most of a year before.

The main thing is to allow enough time to be patient for it. Conditions are favorable for one lunker's, unobtainable for others most of the time.

Another aspect of lunker hunting commonly neglected is the tendency of large fish to burn in a half hour's breath without getting hooked. If a few casts prove futile, advise the Mercury lunkers mark the location and leave with a minimum of disturbance. Return later for another try.

The fish don't come easy, with patience and an enthusiasm that overrules long fruitless hours, and sometimes the rubs of a shallow casters, the prospective angler. That's the lunker, and knowing where it came from, will be ample reward.

Clallam Bay Bruins dominated the All-Conference selections in the North Olympic League with 6 offensive selections and 4 defensive selections.

The Bruins moved to the title with an unblemished record. Outlined placed second.

Defensive selections were: linemen, Tom Rae, Outquene; Bill Hopkins and Charles Hartman, Clallam Bay, and Al Napiontek, Joyce; backs, Jim Murray and Don Jelskila, Clallam Bay; Greg Arnold, Neah Bay; Warfield, Outquene.

BY BILL BECK - Former U.S. Olympic Ski Team Coach

It's exciting to hear snow reports at the outset of the season, but before you uncover your skis ask yourself if you're in shape for them. The long summer makes many a skier forget the stamina and body discipline one needs on the slopes.

With snow already covering the northwestern mountains and gradually sweeping down across the rest of the country, enthusiasts have only a few weeks left to get in a ski attitude.

Skiing is a sport for people of all ages and abilities, and a single conditioning program can work for everyone. Active children can dash right from the football field to the ski slopes without any formal exercise. Adults who regularly swim, play tennis, touch football, ride bikes or engage in other energetic sports also have passed the first gates in their race for physical fitness.

If you have 30 minutes recreational skills - have been taking it easy since that last summer swim, try to devote as much time as possible getting in shape for the exciting snow season ahead.

Whether you are a first-time skier or a 10-year veteran, you will be placing the major strain on your legs and lungs. Today's resorts tend to be steeper, the snow is a skier's legs, and no single conditioning program can work for everyone. Active children can dash right from the football field to the ski slopes without any formal exercise. Adults who regularly swim, play tennis, touch football, ride bikes or engage in other energetic sports also have passed the first gates in their race for physical fitness.

The $1.00 permit has adhesive on both ends for attaching it to a branch or trunk of the tree. This permit must be attached before removing the tree from the National Forest. The permit is not transferable.

Santa Arrived On Schedule

Santa arrived in Forks on schedule via airplane Saturday for his annual visit with children in the Forks area. He was transported from the airport to town via the traditional fire-truck ride.

Each year Santa makes his headquarters at the Forks Department and Variety Store.

On the trip to town, the snowballs were dropped from the plane over various locations. Numbers corresponded with numbered items listed at the Forks Department and Variety Store. If you found a plate snowball with a matching number, you received that gift.

Peninsula Telephone Co. Holds Annual Christmas Dinner

DEAR JANE

DEAR JANE:

My daughter is in high school, going steady with a boy, and unfortunately they are very serious about each other. I have thought about taking my daughter to our physician and having him prescribe "the pill" for her. I am afraid that she is headed for an out-of-wedlock situation and am really at a loss as to what course to take. Should I absolutely forbid her to go steady any longer? Should I give her "the pill" to prevent a sticky situation, or should I just ignore the whole thing?

Generation Gap

Dear Gap:

My dear, you are a deep one! You do not trust your daughter, and therefore must not trust yourself. You have just spent around 16 years rearing one daughter, and if that was not enough time to give her the stable understanding of this type of situation, then you are indeed in a "gap". You do not ignore your daughter; you surround her in a serenity of trust.

DEAR JANE:

I have done a terrible thing. I have been sneaking my mother's birth control pills. I replace them with aspirin because they are the same shape. Mom is so sleepy in the morning when she takes "the pill" that she doesn't notice the difference. I just found out that my Mom is expecting a you-know-what. I am so sick inside, and to make matters worse, Mom is blaming her blanket-blank doctor for her predicament. And she is also telling all of her friends that the pill does not work, though I know it does. My mother never did trust me, and now I know she was right.

A Sneaky Sap

Dear Sneaky:

You made your bed honey, now instead of lying in it -- stand up and tell the truth. We all have to grow up sometime! Remember, that if you do not trust yourself, no one will ever trust you!

DEAR JANE:

Tell "Disgusted" in your last column there is nothing that can be done about the electrical problem, since no one can compete against an inspector who won't pass your work no matter how well done it is.

The Better Business Bureau can do nothing, only try to help. If one lies and cheats, I doubt if he would make the bill any less. They didn't for me, who also had the problem.

It is only people like you who will speak out on these problems and draw it to the public's attention, can we try to stop this cheating. Keep up the good work.

A luncheon was served while the girls modeled.

Those modeling were Mmes. Ted Kettel, Walter Fuhrman, Claude Clark, Ray Birdwell, Brian Fitts, Larry Soule, Henry Geist, Warren Paul, Gordon Otos and Rich Dimmel.

This 100% wool dress worn by Rochelle Dimmel is in a rusty orange color and can be worn with or without the belt.

Well, What Do You Know?

fun, games and knowledge

by MARTHA GLAUBER SHAPP, Editor, The New Book of Knowledge

One of the most interesting hobbies is making a collage. Do you know how to make one?

A collage is a picture made by pasting pieces of cloth or paper on cardboard, wood or canvas.

Collages are easily made at home. All that you need are such ordinary materials as old newspapers and magazines, theater or bus tickets, some rags, and perhaps a package of colored tissue or construction paper. A pair of scissors is helpful, but a piece of paper can often be more interesting when its edges have been torn rather than cut. Contrasting textures may be added to your collage with bits of burlap, bag or sandpaper. The most important tools, however, are paste (collage is a French word for "pasting") and your own imagination.

A collage may be made quickly, with no planning at all, or it may be made with painstaking detail after a great deal of planning and thought. The way you make yours depends on how you like to work, but as a beginner it is best to try both. Make one collage by quickly tearing, cutting and pasting shapes onto the cardboard. Add more shapes, take some away, or change the form of others as you think necessary. When you are satisfied, draw pencil lines on the cardboard around each shape. Then remove the shapes, coat them one by one with paste, and replace them within their proper guidelines.

It's Time For... EYE CARE

Dr. Newton K. Wesley
DEPTH PERCEPTION

There is a great deal of misconception about depth perception. It is possible to enjoy this phenomenon even if he has only one eye. The use of two eyes, naturally, heightens the effect of depth perception, but if you were to lose an eye, you would regain monocular depth perception very quickly. The employment of two eyes when viewing an object, enables us to "see around" it. That is, you see one side with one eye and the opposite side with the other. This increases your perspective because you see the object from two different angles.

Some one-eyed people are able to achieve a simulated type of normal depth perception by moving their eye rapidly from side to side. This gives an illusion of depth. Once a person adapts to his one-eyed condition, his depth perception is almost as keen as the normal viewer. Some of you may recall Wiley Post, the famous aviator. He wore a patch on one eye to cover his blind eye. Even with this handicap he became one of America's most outstanding air pioneers.

Although the one-eyed person does have a restricted visual field, there are many animals whose eye placement is different from humans and who see the world vastly changed from the manner in which we view it. The horse and the rabbit are two common examples of this. They do not use the two eyes together but they have a much wider field of vision. It is only when the eyes are placed in front of the head that the two will work together and provide binocular, or two-eyed depth perception.

SIGNS OF WINTER

As the last leaf of Autumn falls to the ground, Mother Nature opens the next chapter entitled "Winter". With this chapter comes frost, hail, cold wind, rain and snow. Silhouetted against the clouds, a young willow tree makes a defensive stand against the coming storm. The birds are gone now and other than a breeze through the willow, one hears nothing. Silence mends the mind and invites us to an hour of solitude. Now it is peaceful but we are assured of the restfulness to come by these signs of winter.

Rainbow Meets

The Rainbow Girls met at the IOOF Hall on Dec. 9th, with Peggy Rhyne, worthy advisor, conducting the meeting.

Minutes were read and the candy sale was discussed. There is still more candy left, so anyone wanting some can contact a Rainbow Girl.

The girls voted to go caroling before Christmas. Other business was carried out.

After the meeting, our Christmas party was held. Mrs. Bob Tuttle and Mrs. Victor Udd received special prizes. Mrs. Howell, our mother advisor, was presented with a gift from the mothers for her outstanding work as mother advisor. A gift exchange and refreshments followed.

Cooking Course At Peninsula

What's cooking at Peninsula College?

A new course in cooking will be offered at Peninsula College beginning Tuesday, December 10. The course will be instructed by L.J. "Sonny" Ervin, chef at Haguewood's Restaurant.

The objectives of the course are to provide training for apprentice cooks, to upgrade skills of those who are already cooks, and to train other kitchen workers who would like to become cooks.

"Opportunities in cooking are wideopen for young men today," Ervin said. "Our older cooks are retiring now and there are few trained men to take their place."

Students may register for the course at the first meeting, December 10, at 5 p.m. in room 1 at Peninsula College. The class will meet each Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 5 to 7, for 50 weeks.

The college kitchen will be used for demonstration purposes. Ervin invited other dinner cooks and kitchen managers in the area to register for the course. "I would like to exchange ideas with them about cooking for the benefit of the rest of the class."

Ervin has been a resident of Port Angeles for fourteen years. He has been a chef at Haguewood's for nine years.

For more information on the cooking course, call Peninsula College, 457-9277.

Library Tea Honors Elizabeth Zerbel

Author "This Week On Tobacco Road"

An "autograph tea" was held for Elizabeth Zerbel on Saturday, Dec. 7, at the Forks Memorial Library from 2-4 p.m. Mrs. Zerbel was present to autograph her new book, "This Week on Tobacco Road" and it was also on sale at the library.

Several out-of-town guests attended the tea; among them Mrs. Zerbel's children and grandchildren. Mrs. L. E. Malnsten, president of the Friends of the Library, presented the honored guest. Mrs. Zerbel gave an interesting talk explaining how she submitted her first poem to a women's magazine and won the first prize of $3.00. She was only 9 years old at the time, and her mother made her return the money as she had signed her mother's name to it. Her mother told her the contest was for a magazine for women and not a children's magazine. However, the prize was returned to her as no age limit had been stated on the contest rules and the editors still considered it the best. Mrs. Zerbel introduced the members of her family, her husband Jack and her mother, Mrs. George Thomas who lives with the Zerbels at Beaver. She presented her son Ronald and his wife, Arlene, from Nyssa, Ore., and their four children, Debbie, Karen, Vanessa and Ronald, Jr.; her son Bob and his son Bobby and daughter Gail from Tacoma; and her daughter Diane and her son-in-law, Dr. M.J. McDermott and their children, Diane, Michael, Patrick and Kevin from Tacoma. Mrs. Zerbel also introduced her sister, Mrs. Gladys Gavette and her friend, Miss Alice Berstler from Portland, Ore. Mrs. L. E. Malnsten and Mrs. Vincent Calloway were co-chairmen of the tea. The tea table was decorated by Mrs. Calloway and Mrs. George Campbell, and as a surprise, Mrs. Campbell donated a beautiful rose-trimmed cake decorated with the words "This Week on Tobacco Road." The two flower arrangements were made by Mrs. Orville Ninke and Mrs. Richard Kall-man, members of the Bogachiel Garden Club. Five Christmas corsages that were presented to Mrs. Zerbel and the women in her family were made by Mrs. Warren Paul.

The cookies were baked by the Calawah Rebekahs using recipes from Mrs. Zerbel's column and a variety of tea sandwiches made by the Friends of the Library were served. Tea and coffee were served and the punch was made by Mrs. George Campbell. Those who poured were Mrs. Jay Sander, Mrs. Gordon Marsh and Mrs. Zerbel's daughter, Mrs. McDermott and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ronald Zerbel. Mrs. Jerald (Margaret) Sanders, Mrs. Charles (Elizabeth) Barlow and Mrs. Merritt (Helen) Corbin contributed attractive oil paintings that were on display throughout the library.

WHY WAR? by Eldon Iverson - Pastor, First Baptist Church

War is terrible. It does untold destruction and brings pain, misery, heartbreak and death. It is no respecter of countries, nations, peoples or tribes. It is as old as man.

Jesus said, "Ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars . . . For nation shall rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom."

We also fight among ourselves; husbands and wives; parents and children; with neighbors, with fellow citizens and friends. There are labor disputes, and we could go on and on giving examples. The history of man is a history of war.

What is the cause of war and fightings? Why is it that we all find it difficult or impossible to get along with all our fellow man? There are people that just "bug" us no end. We try to justify ourselves; "they are wrong - I am right"; "it is the principle of the thing", etc.

"From whence come wars and fightings among you? Come they not hence, even of your lusts (pleasures) that war in your members? Ye lust (want) and have not; ye envy and desire to have and cannot obtain; ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not. Ye ask and receive not because ye ask amiss that ye may consume it upon your pleasures." James 4:1-3

Every human being is guilty of war from the cradle to the grave. Unless we surrender ourselves to Jesus Christ and His teachings and ask His forgiveness it is impossible to keep from quarrels, fights and wars.

HOW WOULD YOU ANSWER?

Yes ___ No ___ Though I do worry, I feel there's a way to prevent it.

Yes ___ No ___ Sometimes I antagonize people because of my actions or attitude. I know there must be a way to correct this.

Yes ___ No ___ It seems contrary to reality, but I feel that real happiness is something apart from wealth, power, or fame.

Yes ___ No ___ There must be a practical way of raising my family in a better world.

A "yes" answer to any of these questions is definite proof of God's concern for you. God talks to man by making him "feel" and "know" of a better way of living. You feel discontent about present conditions, you sense "something better," somewhere.

That's God talking to you. Listen to him. Come to church this Sunday. Read His Living Word in the Bible. This could be the chance you've been waiting for.

Myths and Facts

In an article in The American Rifleman on gun registration, the principal claims of registration proponents are presented and commented upon.

The first claim is that registration would reduce crime by making it more difficult for undesirables to obtain weapons. In answer to that The Rifleman comments, "It is pretty obvious that criminals would not throng police stations to register their firearms." A second claim is that registration would assist in solving crimes by making it possible to trace the firearms used. On this, The Rifleman notes, "Since the firearms were stolen in the first place, tracing records of a gun used in a crime could only lead to the location of the theft, not to the user of the gun."

A third claim, that registration would aid in the apprehension of criminals by making it possible to arrest persons found in possession of unregistered guns, raises a basic question of police power. Only under exceptional circumstances do police have the authority to stop persons on the street and "frisk" them, or to search homes without a warrant. A fourth claim is that registration would keep guns out of the hands of minors, mental incompetents, drug addicts and habitual drunkards. The fallacy of this claim is again that no law can in itself prevent an irresponsible person obtaining a gun through theft.

A final claim is that registration would reduce the number of firearms possessed by individuals. As The Rifleman points out, "This, unfortunately, is only too true. A national registration law would discourage firearms ownership -- by the law-abiding citizens, not by the criminal." President-elect Nixon has pointed to the surest way of discouraging criminal use of firearms. In addition to the federal government, he believes the 50 states should consider action to impose a heavy mandatory prison sentence on anyone who uses a firearm in the commission of a crime.

LURAY, VA., PAGE NEWS AND COURIER: "One thing sure, it is absolutely necessary in these days to know how to read and write. Otherwise, a person is condemned to an ordinary existence and in many cases becomes the ward of the welfare department. Many of the demonstrators who shout for change could use their time much better by applying themselves to books than voicing demands for handouts which they don't deserve."

PORTLAND, ORE., OREGONIAN: "It is against New York law for public employes to strike. But transit workers, teachers and sanitation workers have struck and been punished only by token fines and brief jailing of a few union leaders. The cure for the sickness that has caused New York public employes to violate the law and their oaths of office appears from this distance to be strict administration of the medicine prescribed by law."

Bridge Closed At Rainbow Creek

The Soleduck Ranger District of the U. S. Forest Service reports that the bridge across Rainbow Creek on the Sitkum River Road, or "A" Road is closed.

The high water last Tuesday took out the middle bridge support and damaged another.

This bridge is 13 miles from Highway 101. Unfortunately, the closing of the Sitkum River Road at this bridge shuts off access to the Upper Sitkum area, a popular Christmas-tree cutting and elk-watching area.

According to Don Markham, Construction Engineering Assistant on the Soleduck District, the bridge will probably be repaired during January if the water in Rainbow Creek is low enough.

Motorists are cautioned against going around the barrier and crossing the bridge. Although it looks safe from the road, there is very little holding up the bridge from underneath.

Pioneer Club

West End Pioneers met Nov. 29 with 18 members, 25 guests. An invitation was read from Forks Friends of the Library to a tea honoring Elizabeth Zerbel, who will autograph her book "This Week on Tobacco Road" at the library Dec. 7.

Olive King reported on Community Council. The UGN drive, recently completed, exceeded expectations. Disaster Committee told of its activities recently, and acknowledged Pioneers' check.

Clallam County History was briefly discussed. More articles and pictures are needed. Take them to Olive King, please.

Joan Anderson played a medley of English and Scottish folk songs, then showed her slides of 12 countries of Western Europe. Joan attended summer session at University of Madrid, Spain.

Potluck supper and visiting followed. Next meeting of Pioneers club will be Friday evening, Jan. 31, 1969.

They arrived home Monday morning shortly before the men had to leave for work.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Holland and Mr. and Mrs. Craig Smith (Bing) and family were Thanksgiving dinner guests at the Jack Orr home. Stephanie Orr was home for the holiday weekend, and was taken by her parents to Port Angeles on her way back to CWCE. She was caught in the same traffic tie-up as the Hulls, they on the east side of Snoqualmie Pass and Stephanie on the west side.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Scarlett returned home Saturday after a week's stay in Seattle with their daughters Diane and Roberta. They went over on Sunday and stopped at Hansville to pick up the girls who had spent the holiday there with their uncles, the Erick brothers. Mr. and Mrs. Scarlett spent the time in Seattle attending a series of medical classes at the Virginia Mason Clinic and enjoyed it very much while learning a great many things.

Mrs. Carl McDaniels was out from Port Angeles Monday to attend the Niwaua Home Ec Club Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Bill James. She was accompanied by Mrs. John Watson of Kleena Kleen, B. C., and Mrs. Mary Gowler of Gates Addition, Port Angeles.

The Forks Prairie Grange is meeting this (Thursday) evening in the Sportsmen's Club, and the annual gift and bake sale of the Forks Prairie Cleaners will be held Saturday at Paul's Serve-U beginning at 11 o'clock.

HARTLEY, IOWA, SENTINEL: "We, of the press, may express our ideas and criticize individuals and organizations as long as we do not abuse the privilege and unjustly injure an individual or invade his privacy. Or groups may assemble for peaceful purposes, as they do every day, but when the freedom and safety of others are threatened by such assemblies they can no longer be condoned."

Church News

"For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways." This verse from the 91st Psalm will be part of the Scriptural selections in this week's Bible Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this week. The Lesson is titled "God the Preserver of Man." Related passages to be read from the denominational textbook include the following: "Whatever is governed by God, is never for an instant deprived of the light and might of intelligence and Life." The textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, was written by the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy. Services at VFW Hall, A Street S. E., begin at 11 a. m. All are welcome.
