TEL ROBBED Honor Camp

Approximately 3:45 a.m. the manager of the Town Motel called the marshal's office to report their babysitter was missing and their children left unattended. Marshal Sandmire responded to the call to find the motel had been robbed. Marshal agers of the motel to contact the Sheriff's Department. They tried to contact the local deputy but were unable to do so.

The Sheriff's Department in Port Angeles was then contacted and a description of the girl given. The Sheriff's office had a man in the area in connection with the escape from the Honor Camp. It was thought for a time the incidents were related. Marshal Sandmire checked the roads around town and some of the country roads.

During this time the girl's parents contacted their son and son-in-law to help search

Aroung 5:30 a.m. the girl ran to a cabin in the area where there was a light burning. The residents of the cabin, Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Rouse answered the girl's knock and let her into their

Escapees Taken Three inmates escaped

from Clearwater Honor Camp Saturday between 8 and 10

There was a report of a car being stolen that evening at Clearwater.

James Helmick, superintendent of the honor camp, informed Tacoma police of a address the suspects might possibly visit. The police arrived on the scene and found the suspects had boarded themselves up in the empty house. The car stolen in Clearwater was parked nearby.

The police had to forcibly enter the house to take the suspects in custody.

Doctor in Forks

"I can see them now, walking out of Seoul, the invaders close behind them.

These words from Dr. George Rue are from his heart. Dr. Rue was a medical missionary in Korea for 38 years. He was in charge of Seventh-day Adventist mission hospital in Seoul, Korea. He was there during both the invasion by the North Koreans and the

Dr. Rue graduated from medical school in 1924. He interned in 1925 and in 1929, he, his wife and small children began the journey to Korea.

There he was in charge of the mission hospital in Seoul. It was a 115 bed hospital. His practice was mainly a general one, from surgery to obstetrics. When the North Koreans invaded Seoul Dr. Rue and his mission staff fled to Pusan Korea. When the Chinese invaded the country they were advised by the American ambassador to evacuate. The American Army then took over the hospital before they too withdrew from the area. The Koreans said, "they would loose everything they had before becoming Communists. They lost everything they had in Seoul. Through the suffering and grief of the war they complained.'

When asked what Korea was like, Dr. Rue replied, "Korea is all hills, trees are scarce. In the winter when it is cold the hills are a bare. bleak brown, but in the spring they are beautiful beyond description. The rice is a very rich green and the hills are covered with Azaleas."

Dr. Rue and his wife live on a island in Puget Sound. They have two children, a son, who is a doctor in Portland and a daughter, a nurse. Dr. Rue's daughter and her husband lived in Korea for ten years and both of their children were born there.

Dr. Rue's son has three sons himself. One of them is studying to become a doctor.

They now live in Seattle.

Dr. Rue is in Forks caring for the practice of Dr. E. Leibold, who is on vacation.

Who makes the decisions? The Federal Government subsidies housing, welfare program, urban renewal, highway construction, airlines, medicine, education and what have you?

Recently while discussing a survey of local education, I was informed that it was being initiated and carried out under the auspices of the Federal Government. The finding would be turned over to the Federal Government and they would render a decision concerning the results.

What happened to local government? Why haven't we the funds and the necessary leadership to Why have we become dependent on the Federal Government to the extent we are losing our individual rights?

Instead of the tax dollars remaining in the hands of state government, they are turned over to the Federal Government, who in turn dispense them, with strict guide lines to their use-

It becomes increasingly evident with the passage of time that individual freedom, decisions and state government are slipping from our grasp.

Is this happening due to our lack of interest, know-how or because it is easier to "let someone else do it"?

TED HUDSON, SR. Since my vife and I are not good public speakers w€ would like to express our true thoughts and feelings in memory of Ted Hudson,

IN MEMORY OF...

I first met Ted in 1925 and in the summer of 1927, Ted and I worked together for the county. Ne shoveled gravel off the beach onto a Model T truct and patched the LaPush roid. In 1930, my wife and I worked at a resort in LaPush where we got to know Ted and Pansy well. Since that time we have had the ionor and privilege to hint, fish, go on canoe trips and neighbor in their home and ours. We have never heard Ted utter a word of anger or speak ill of aryone. We are greatly honored to have had as a good friend, the kindest, most honest, generous and sincere man we have ever known.

As parents of six children, all married now, who rode the school bus Ted drove, we want to say, if he was driving the bus to a football or basketball game which was away from home in stormy or icy road conditions, we didn't worry, feeling that with Ted our children would arrive home safely.

Ted will always be in the hearts and memories of those who knew him, be it adult, teenager or child.

SPORTS. . . by Larry Thomas Moclips Falls to Spartans

The Forks Spartans began their 1969-70 regular season play on a high note Friday night by defeating the Moclips Hyaks, 76-28. Sparked by Jerry Price's 24 points the Spartans began their offensive drive early and led at halftime, 47-16. Going to his bench quite early, Coach Roy Mohondro was able to see what every one on the team was capable of doing in game action.

Dennis Perry and Bruce Allen raced to many fast break baskets on rebounds by Price and Rich Liles. Price had 16 rebounds and Liles added 14.

From the field, the Spartans hit 27 of 73 shots for 37 percent, while Moclips hit 11 of 41 shots for 27 per-is a request for uniforms to be returned. Uniforms from Forks Lion Club (gold and purple), Forks Merchants (white and green), and Pay & Save Travelers (blue and white) are still out, it would be appreciated if these uniforms would be turned into either Norm Bagby at the Town Motel or to Larry

All wrapped up in my easy chair this quiet Sunday afternoon with my thoughts and a plate of french fries that daughter Juanita just made. Getting settled down to watch bowling on the boob tube. Mother is pretty busy working on another one of her driftwood pictures. Pretty talented old gal I married. Durn good cook, too.

Carol Cromley had the high series for Tuesday Afternoon at 476 and tied with Kay Sundberg at 178 for high game. Kay had a 473 series and Dot McCoy a 177 game.

Duke Streeter was the big gun for the Sunset bunch as he blasted out a 236-633. Chuck Laswell shot a 220-576, and Harry Lefler picked off the 7-10 split. Dunc's Rototilling won the first half by one point.

Pat Mansfield's 192-534 was high for the Powder Puffs. Mary Kennedy rolled a 517, Wes' Chevron rolled a new high team game of 896 two weeks ago.

Harriet Tryon banged out a big 213 hi 10 in the Hoot Owl League and Leta Rondeau had a 193-513.

For the Thursday Beginners, Patsi Robinson had a 148-383, Lenora Oliver a 390, and Anita Bumgarner a 145.

With but one nite to go, the Women's Thursday Nite League has four teams with a chance at first place. Coastto-Coast are in front by a half point over Leflers. Sully's are two and a half out and Vagabond three and a half out Jean Streeter had a 179-506 and Yvonne Kettel 177-524. John Nagel came out of retirement with a 244-600 in the West End circuit. Harry Lefler and Fred Jarvis both had a 224 and Jim Hjelmeseth a 575.

Some good bowling again in the Friday Nite Mixed. Nagel-Lyda set a new team series high of 2547. Jean Streeter bowled real good as a Streeter should, and whopped out a big 221 and a 566. Sally Nagel had a 192 and a real good 572 series. I knew you girls could do it. Frank Lyda, with a 139 average, rolled a 192-559, George Richardson had a 219-570, and Ray Birdwell a 205-581.

Joyce Huling led Saturday's Mini Squad with a 129 game and a two game set of 226. Theresa Decker had a 116-

Big crowd at Saturday Nite Monte Carlo, thirty people came down to try their luck at winning some loot. Nobody hit the Jackpot, Darlene Thrall won seven free games, Dot McCoy, Rae West, and Arden Prissel each hit a five-dollar shot and Ol' Dad walked off with some of Duke's and Bob West's money in our sidepot.

Boy! What happened to the guys in the Sunday Mixed? Leta Rondeau's 187 and Bernice Richardson's 494 topped anything the guys could bowl. Jim Hjelmeseth had a 181-

Al Whitehead slammed out a 268-615 in the Forks Prairie League, Vern Rondeau a 256-618, D.J. Caulkins a 225, and Chuck Hamby a 614. Spoelstra Bros. won the first half. Bowlers of the week: D.J. Caulkins a 246, Duke Streeter 636, Jean Streeter a 221, and Sally Nagel a 572.

TWO FOR DENNIS-Dennis Perry (11) picked up two more points to bring Forks back to within 9 points of Bainbridge in the third quarter of play Saturday night on the Island. Forks fouls played a big role in the final score. Islanders, 74; Forks, 57. The Redskins are coming. By Lonnie Archibald

Keith Harper 5; Gary Brown 4; Rich Gasfield 2; and Gary Rasmussen 1. In the third game, the battle of the losers, Townsend defeated the Wolves, 26-23. With two minutes left in the game the Redskins led 21-12, but a full court pass by Sequim brought them within two, with 20 seconds. However, Port Townsend controlled the ball to run out the clock.

Port Townsend scoring: Gary Rasmussen 8; Rich Gasfield 5; Keith Harper 5; Don Sandvig 3; Neville Campbell 2; Butch Rondeau 2; and George Sutherland 1.

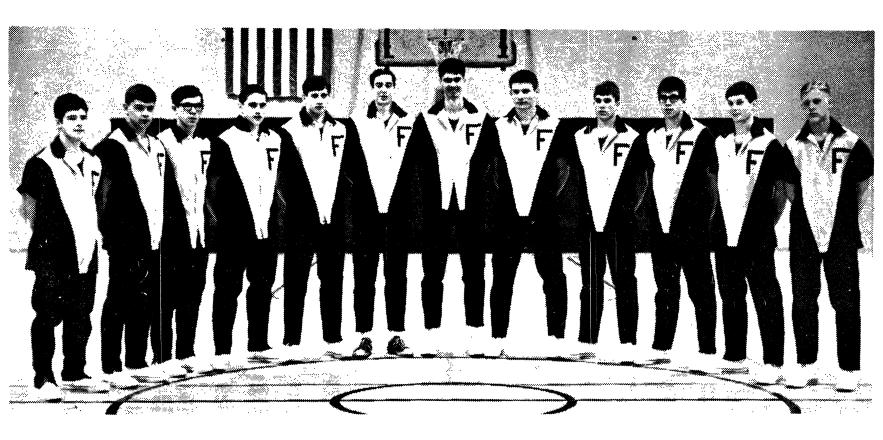

Sequim scoring: Tom Parker 8; Al Ludke 5; Jeff Bills 6; Troy Herridge 4.

In the final game between the winners, Forks romped to a 28-13 win over Chimacum. They out rebounded and out shot the Cowboys. The Spartans used a very tight defense to hold Chimacum to five of 26 attempts.

Forks scoring: Rich Liles 11; Jerry Price 6; Pete Dahlgren 5; Randy Goos 2; Dave Beebe 2; Chet Hunt.

Chimacum socring: Bill Porter 4; Mark Lopeman 4; Glen Huntingford 2: Chuck Stewart 2 and Bob Shold 1.

Tyee — Beaver — Sappho News BY MRS. J. E. MERRITT

Mrs. Elsie Browning returned home Thursday after visiting relatives on Camano Island, and in Indianola, Olympia and Winlock, Washington. She also visited her sister, Mrs. Elaine Wood in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. John Merritt were Port Angeles visitors on Thursday of last week, and on the way in to town they stopped for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Al Koske at Welcome Inn Trailer Park. They called on Mr. Hugo Bloomquist, the Koskes' next-door neighbor, but were disappointed not to see Mrs. Bloomquist, the former Mrs. Lois Erweck, as she was at work.

Mrs. Carl McDaniels came out from Port Angeles Sunday and stayed overnight at the A.M. Nordman home. She was brought out by Mr. and Mrs. Don Young, granddaughter of the late Mr. McDaniels, and the three were accompanied by Mr. McDaniels' brother. Floyd McDaniels.

After a short visit at the Nordmans, Mr. and Mrs. Young and Mr. McDaniels returned home, stopping to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cassell at Bear Creek.

Meditation

By Pastor Howard Stockman

When did you decide for or against going to Church? At the same time did you decide against God? If you made a conscious decision it was probably through some experience and involvement in a Church. It was through the Church that you learned enough to make a decision for or against religion. With this decision have you decided that this is the stand that your children will make? Maybe you say that you are leaving this decision up to your children and don't bother to see that they have enough information to really make a concrete decision. If you are in this situation then I think that you have failed your children.

Perhaps you have come to this conclusion because of some bad experiences in your early life and would like to keep this same thing from happening to your children. Yet even though you have had a bad experience in the past with religion this is not the fault of God but of some of the false ideas of people. God should not be blamed for what people have or haven't done. In making this decision to stay away from Church it is the same as deciding not to send your children to school because of some bad experience you probably had when you attended school. Yet I am sure that none of you have thought this way because you know how important school is. Everybody in this day and age needs a good education in order to understand society enough to properly get along in life.

Faith in God is the most important aspect in life and is one that cannot be treated as secondary. If you believe in God than you believe in a power that is higher than yourself and you are dependent on Him whether you want to be or not. In order for your children to be able to make a decision as to their faith in God they need to have some knowledge about God. This you receive in a church through their education program. This should be taught in the home but most people either con't feel qual fied to do this or don't take the time to teach them. In order to get your youngsters to come to Church it may take some pressure on your part just as it take pressure to get them to attend Public school. It is up to you to let your children make their decision for or against God from knowledge and experience.

knowledge and experience. people. God should not be blamed for what people have or We Decide About Religion? Some things are absolutely essential to manhood. One of them is knowing how to tie a necktie. Obviously any ability must be acquired before there are regular demands for its use. That's why someone else decided that we must learn to tie our own tie. All religious education is built on the same principle. Faith and moral understanding must be gained before doubt and temptation are encountered. Our parents, our Church train us for constructive living. Of course, there is nothing illogical in the oft-heard contention that, when a person is old enough, he can make up his own mind about religion. That's exactly what millions of us have But in almost every case our parents gave us adequate and continuing preparation for that decision. With the guidance of the Church we learned the value of faith and spiritual perception. Then we were able to make our vital decision from knowledge and experience!

THE "NOW" FASHIONS ARE "IN" AT ALICE'S

Alice Simonton, of Alice's in Forks, held her Christmas style show, Friday, December 5, at Clark's Vagabond.

The very latest in womens fashions were shown. Styles ranged from daytime dresses that go to date-time dresses with a simple change of accessories, to the very "now" look of pantsuits for evening with softly flared legs and metallic trimmed tops in colors from basic black to "hot" pink.

Also shown were the new pant plus tunic top which could be worn as a mini-

The very lovely models wore dresses suited to their particular tastes.

Those modeling were: Mrs. Claude Clark, chose the very latest in cocktail dresses and pantsuits. Mrs. Ray Birdwell chose as one of her costumes a vivid purple dress in the "flapper style" that is so "in" this year. Mrs. Richard Diimmel modeled several after-five dresses, one a stunning white with long sleeves, metallic trim and buttons on the sleeves. Mrs. John Nagle, modeled one dress that was particularly lovely, it was a hot pink satin with an over-dress of pink lace. Mrs. Warren Paul chose one sport outfit, a dark wine red pantsuit with a paisley scarf in contrasting colors. She also wore several daytime dresses. Mrs. Dick Johnson chose a lovely red suit with a pleated skirt and long vest with a white blouse and contrasting scarf. Mrs. Walt Fuhrman modeled several sport outfits and one evening pantsuit of white lace, trimmed in blue. Mrs. Ralph Warren chose a pink tunic pantsuit ensemble which can also be worn as a mini-dress. Mrs. William Bullock chose a black tunic pantsuit, trimmed with a deep fringe on the sleeves and the hem of the tunic

Mrs. Earl Simonton chose several daytime dresses with a holiday flair.

Mrs. Orville Ninke demonstrated the art of arranging scarves to accent today's fashions. Scarves have never been worn to the extent as they are today. Even last year's dresses take on new life and fit into the style of today with the addition of the "new" look in scarves.

Mrs. Jack James was narrator. Approximately 100 women attended the luncheon and style show.

Say, "Good Morning World" with the Bud Howard program, early morning on KVAC.

MRS. CLAUDE CLARK models a striking pink pantsuit for evening.

MRS. RICHARD DIIMMEL is wearing a tunic style eveming ensemble with black flared leg pants and a metalic accented tunic top.

CEYLONESE PASTOR TO SPEAK

The Reverend Lloyd Perera, an Assemblies of God pastor in Ceylon, will be guest speaker Thursday, December 11, 7:30 p.m. at the Assembly of God Church, according to Rev. Art Morlin.

Ceylon is a tropical country about 25,000 square miles with a population of 12 million. Mr. Perera is the only Assemblies of God representative to Ceylon.

Assemblies of God representative to Ceylon.

He came to the United States in 1954 and received his

B. A. degree in Bible from Central Bible College, Springfield, Missouri. He also attended California State College and was associate pastor in San Leandro, California, before travelling 11 years as an international evangelist.

Mr. Perera appreciates the privilege of ministering to his own people. But as a native of Ceylon, and a minister, he is deeply concerned about Ceylon's spiritual condition. While Mr. Perera and his wife travel here in the United States they will present the needs of their country and of their work.

A 16 mm color film and Mr. Perera's personal testimony of salvation while in practice of Hindu penance will be featured during this special missions rally. The public is invited to attend.
