I received an invitation to visit your Court. Despite a leaking wheel cylinder, my nine year old son and I managed to get into Forks a bit early.

Then Panic! I couldn't find the Court House. Finally, persistance prevailed and the Clerk said that the door labeled "Marshall" is the place. The gentleman sitting at a desk told us Court would be at 10:00,

My son and I talked over what would be the worst they could do to us, and went back to the room. The first man had left and another was sitting at the microphone.

After a while, we started talking about fishing, children, and the importance of doing ones job well. I was very impressed with his intelligence and grasp of things. In the course of conversation, I learned that this was his day off, but he'd dropped by to

This was our second visit to the Court and this time we learned that Court was at 1:00 p.m. instead of at 10:00 a.m. as we had been informed on Tuesday.

We were walking (hitchhiking is illegal- so spent the time getting parts for the brakes and looking over the town. It was a lovely day. In LaPush it's quite often foggy.

Back at 1:00 p.m. and several cases came up. The way the Marshal handled this was clear, to the point and in my opinion honest and factual. The first man, whom I did not see again, turned out to be the other Marshal. I would have liked to have talked to him further. But by that time I had found that he was a witness in my case. I had not recognized him!

Well, the Game Warden arrived, greeted us politely.

and we talked over the rules and regulations under which I was operating. I'm a commercial fisherman and was charged with trolling by Koitlah Point.

I felt that my fathometer reading would give a much better position than sighting towards shore. I checked with the Coast Guard, and they gave me a bearing.

So when we came to trial, I pleaded not guilty. The Warden's testimony was clear, and he brought a chart which we both used to show our position. I explained that the reason I telt should be taken was the following: I had not intentionally committed an

The wind was 15-25 pushing us east-the tide was running

I didn't have my trolling poles down and my gear was badly fouled as even the Game Warden could see that either I was an awful unlucky, or an awfully dumb fisherman. (I'm both) One of my poles was badly splinted from towing another boat alongside in rough

One thing I couldn't understand, is the designation of some lures as salmon lures. I caught more cod on them than anything. But after the trial, the Warden was kind enough to give them back to me. I'm so broke that I can't buy anymore. I guess there must be well off fishermen, but very few made it by fishing.

The verdict was guilty, and the fine $54.00. Now that amount of money would buy my son shoes, which he needs badly. Also food which we need. We've been living on fish, even the puppy is complaining, and she gets hers first--or we are sorry--cause she won't be denied. One wonders why they use the term "a dogs

After 47 years, I'm starting to look forward. Fishing long hours is disappointing, but much better mentally and physically than punching a time clock. I tried for twenty years to catch up with myself. Never took a day off allotted my children time to talk to me, and found it easier to just say "how much do you need" and "call if you need me", than to really devote time to them. One wonders why things are, but we always hope that we're the ones that are wrong and that fate is doing what is best for your leved ones. No one can hurt me anymore except thru my children. If that happens I've failed somewhere. I got off the subject, but the reason I started this letter was to call attention to the fine town Marshal's you have. Could you put up a sign so people could find the Court? First time I missed the room and came face to face with a cell--boy, that shook me! What do you keep in there, the Abominable Snowman? Take away a man's sunlight in Washington and he might as well be dead. I know, I was born here Rain is fine but

Well, I've got to scramble, if I don't catch the money soon I'll be in that cell. It reminds me of that guy with the long beard in the funny papers -chained to his cell -- but it's not funny to him.

I went out to check my jigging line (our breakfast, I'd hoped) and now I know. I'll never make it as a fisherman. The jig and all was gone. If anyone out there knows how to fish, please give me some advice because the fish are sure smarter than me. I really mean it. I've lost lures, lines, leads. Wonder if I'll ever learn. Please drop me a line or I'll be a guest of your City---unwillingly. Thanks and a very sunny

S&R MEMBERS ATTEND CONCLAVE

Representatives of the Forks Community Search and Rescue unit attended a Search and Rescue conclave at the U. S. Coast Guard station at Port Angeles on Sunday, July 19th. Members of five other S. A.R. units of the Olympic Peninsula were also in attendance. The purpose of the meeting was to explore the feasability of forming a Search and Rescue Council to foster cooperation among the units, the plan to eventually include all SAR units in the state.

Mr. Bernie Lind, Civil Defense director of Clallam County called the meeting to order and introduced the speakers; Mr. Hal Foss, coordinator for all Search and Rescue units within the state, (appointed by the Governor), and Mr. Eugene Fear of the Mountain Rescue Council.

Mr. Foss outlined the structure of the state-wide Search and Rescue set-up and explained how local units can secure help through state and federal organizations in the event special equipment or skilled personnel are needed in a search

Mr. Fear talked on outdoor survival techniques and presented a motion picture detailing the progressive symptoms of hypothermia (exposure sickness). Literature on this subject was made available to everyone.

RECEPTION HELD FOR THE ED MALMSTENS

A wedding receiption was given by Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Malmsten at Forks Bible Church, Sunday, July 19, to honor their son, Edward, and his wife Helen, who were married June 20th in Portland, Oregon.

Guests greeted the bridal couple and their parents as they stood under a decoration of pink and white streamers centered with a large white ornamental bell. The bride wore her wedding gown and a wristlet of pink baby rosebuds. The bridegroom and the fathers of the honorees wore deep pink rosebud boutonnieres, and the mothers wore Pink Galore fuchsia corsages.

Pink and white was the color scheme used in decorations. table appointments, punch and corsages. All flower arrangements and corsages were made by Mrs. L. E. Malmsten.

The table was centered with a low crystal bowl of fuchsia blooms and flanked by rose and silver candlesticks which were over 100 years old and loaned for the occasion by Mrs. Gordon Marsh. The cake was decorated with pink rosebuds and white bells and was centered with two hearts. It was made by Mrs. Richard Kallman. Friends who served the cake were Mrs. Wayne Huling, Mrs. Frank Henry, and Mrs. Paul Hanson.

Coffee and tea were poured by Mrs. Nansen Anderson and Mrs. Dorris Douglas. The base of the punch bowl was surrounded with a ring of pink, white, and red fuchsias. Those in charge of the punch were Mrs. Willie Self, Mrs. Phillip Reed, Mrs. Martin Diimmel, and Mrs. Steve Wasankari.

Mrs. Jake Tiemersma, Mrs. Steve Wasankari and Mrs. Richard Miller presided over the guest book and the pinning on of corsages.

The gift table was decorated with pink and white streamers and a vase of pink rosebuds and was in the charge of Miss Marcia and Pamala Self. Vases of rosebuds, sweetpeas and fuchsias were used throughout the rooms.

Others who helped during the reception were Mrs. Larry Suslick, Miss Karen Lilies, Kasey Baron and Dorene Miller. Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hicks and sons Wavne and David from Concrete, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Joy from Concrete, and Mrs. John Spoelstra, Sr., of Monroe, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs.

SEEKERS ON TOUR

Airports envelope a time of goodbyes, a time of hellos, a time of hope, and a time of uncertainty. But at the San Francisco International Airport, June 21, 1970, the anticipation vas highest among 43 college career people as they began a "magical mystery tour" around the world. The group is called Seekers Leadership Study Tour led by the Reverend Jerry Taylor and his wife, Earbara. Christian collegians from the U.S. west coast have merged together to travel, worship, study, tour, and undergo a program in Christian leadership training. Scheduled highlights are numerous, exciting, and dramatic: Japan's World Exposition, the Passion Play in Oberammergau, a week's stay in the troubled land of Jordon.

Christian Soldiers"? The flight was surprisingly a new adventure in itself for many members. Some inspected the wing flaps suspiciously while others religously studied emergency instructions. Still others chose to study the attentive stewardesses on board. Kauau, the "garden island" of Hawaii became a haven for the group as they took in sand, surf, and shopping. A Wailua River cruise to the famous Fern Grotto was also featured on the itenerary. There were even rumors that several male members took in a few hula lessons.

The time came to move on to greener pastures -- in this case, Japan. Once again, as they boarded the Boeing 747 jet to Tokyo, they burst into a catchy melody.. must have been "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands".

I look forward to surprises. They can be so fun and exciting. There are some surprises that aren't as nice or fun. There is the accident on the highway, the unexpected death in the family or the unexpected illness just when vacation has come. Are you prepared for these surprises or do you close your eyes hoping that they will never come? Many people are totally unprepared for anything bad to happen. They have been so involved in their own world of work, family and pleasure that they do not prepare for the time when negative things will happen in their lives. They have enjoyed the happy surprises but are like children who haven't been prepared for

The way to prepare yourself for anything that might happen in the future is by turning to God. Nothing bad ever happens to Him because he is greater than us and all our physical limitations. God looks over each person who believes and trusts in Him. This enables each believer to live his life to the fullest realizing that he is in God's hands. This is a great, calming influence for every believer.

The Church is where God's message of love is proclaimed. It is the place where we come as a group to praise God and to thank him for the many things he has given us in the past. It is where we receive God's guidance to help us live good lives in our society. We can get along without going to Church or praying to God, but in doing this our lives are really hallow. There comes a time in our life when we wished that we had spent our earlier years listening to God's message of love as demonstrated to us through Jesus Christ.

To meet the negative surprises of later life, come to Church to hear the proclamation of the Gospel of truth. If you do your later years will be complete and full.

When each new experience springs forth like a jack-in-the-box ... and your fondest possessions are toys... and your chief concern is to squeeze out of every hour the last ounce of amusement-then it's fun to be surprised.

But when you've grown too old for toys . . . when life is laced with serious challenge . . . when happiness depends on a thousand social, economic and moral decisions—then surprises can be devastat-

It is elementary that our early education must prepare us for the later surprises. The knowledge, habits and skills we acquire must be adequate for meeting the unexpected as readily as the expected.

And because religious faith and moral fortitude are men's chief resources in the unheralded crises of adult life, we must nurture their development in every child.

Support, encourage, serve your church in its vital efforts to mold the character of today's youth — tomorrow's adults.

Well here it it, mid July, and time to study the ONP map in search of new hiking trails. There are approximately 600 miles of trails through the wilderness area and they are awaiting you, the Outdoorsman. God has created a paradise here on the Olympic Peninsula, in mountains, lakes, streams, valleys and beaches, and yet there are many of us who never take advantage of this gift, which is ours for the asking. There are several short hikes which will take one into the high country and by high country I mean the areas which lie near or above the 4,000 ft. elevation. My definition of a short hike is one of four miles or less These hikes are excellent for a one night stay. Also recommended for the beginner or for early season hikes. To many, a four mile hike which climbs to the backcountry may sound like a hard struggle. With todays light weight hiking and camping gear and a little knowledge, which one gains from experience, these hikes may be relatively easy. Children at the age of five or six will have no problem on these short likes. Overnight trips are a good choice. Start out early, at the crack of dawn, while it is still cool.
