

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor: You are probably wondering why an alumni association of a Seattle high school would be sending you copy concerning a reunion to be held in Seattle.

From the start Broadway was an integrated school, without being aware there was such a thing. In my own class of 1923 (45 grads), though predominantly Caucasian, we had a number of Negroes, Filipinos, and Japanese. As new high schools were opened, and population shifted, the number of Negroes and Filipinos dropped, and the Japanese increased. Also Chinese.

In a general sorting of the nearly 4,000 pieces of mail sent this week to announce our reunion, I noted the names of three unrelated people addressed to Roslyn, a tiny town in central Washington. Three cartons carried mail to countless alumni in other cities and towns throughout the state.

The Broadway High School Alumni Assn. will hold its 54th annual reunion in Pigott Auditorium, 11th Avenue and E. Madison Street, Friday, October 12, at 8:15 p.m. Pigott Auditorium is on the Seattle University campus.

One of the customary features of the program is the salute to the "Anniversary Classes," celebrating anniversaries in multiples of five. This year these special classes are 1908 (Broadway's first graduating class), 1908, 1913, 1918, 1923, 1928, 1933, 1938, 1943, and the 1948 "orphans." Broadway ceased to exist as a high school June, 1946, and the classes of 1947, 1948, and 1949 were transferred to other Seattle high schools, hence the orphan designation.

The old Broadway building, scheduled for demolition in the near future, was the first building of the Seattle Community College central campus. Wendell C. LaRoche, 24 Broadway Alumni president, invites all who ever attended the old school, one semester or four years, and their guests, to attend the reunion, with a special welcome to members of the "Anniversary Classes."

Copy of last year's WHIMS, with news about many Broadways, was enclosed. Alumni who wish to be placed on the mailing list, or who may have been overlooked, should write to the Broadway Alumni Assn. Give name, address and class. Married women should also list their maiden names. The address is P.O. Box 1324, Capitol Hill Station, Seattle, Wa., 98102.

Amendments to State Lottery Bill

Amendments to the state lottery law bill sponsored by Sequim Representative Paul Conner and passed by the house, were designed to correct several inequities in the gambling statutes, Conner said.

One of the two Conner amendments authorizes the State Gambling Commission to certify small, unincorporated non-profit organizations as falling within the class of "bona fide charitable or non-profit organizations" eligible for licenses to conduct bingo and other legal games of chance.

deal with the plight of rural hospitals and the acute shortage of doctors. The telecast will be presented at a date in the near future.

CITY COUNCIL

The City Council Meeting was called to order Sept. 17 at 7:40 p.m. with ten people present.

The agenda began with the council's okay on a building permit for a garage for C. R. Young. The water department reported that there is more than enough water available now with the two old pumps in use, and due to the controversial power shortage there is no need to run the new third pump.

After a question and answer period, the meeting adjourned promptly at 1 p.m.

Legislature supports returning holidays to original dates

A bill by Sequim Representative Paul Conner to return the patriotic holidays, Memorial Day and Veterans' Day, to their traditional dates of May 30 and November 11 was overwhelmingly supported by both houses of the Legislature last week.

The Conner bill was passed during the regular biennial legislative session last winter, but was subsequently vetoed by Governor action. In a remarkable show of bi-partisan unanimity, the House voted 65 to 32 to override a gubernatorial veto.

Conner said the original dates will be restored until 1974, since his measure will not take effect until 90 days after the adjournment of the September "mini-session."

WILDLIFE HABITAT ESTABLISHED

Goose and Sand Island in Grays Harbor were officially designated as natural preserves by the Board of Natural Resources in accordance with the Natural Preserves Act passed by the 1972 Legislature. These first two areas will form the foundation for what hopefully will become a series of protected habitats for unique and endangered natural environments.

Goose Island serves as a nesting area for a large colony of Caspian Terns and seagulls. The nesting tern colony is almost unbroken by the presence of the tern colony.

HOSPITAL REPORT

For the week ending midnight, Sept. 16, 1978, the number of admissions was 11; discharges, 10; emergency room visits, 30; outpatient visits, 42.

An application for a reserve patrolman, used in case of emergencies, was presented to the council by Mr. Ken Bryson. On Mr. Bryson's suggestion, Russell Palmer was approved as a reserve patrolman.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:10 p.m.

PTA CALENDAR

There is still time to get your family listed on the P. T. A. Calendar as Sept. 30 is the deadline. Simply send $2.00 and a list of your family's birthdays to PO Box 1343, Forks, and you will receive your birthday calendar for January 1. For further information call Patsy Robinson, 374-5135.

With so many of our members being new to the area, President Anne had each one stand and introduce herself. Two positions earlier vacated were filled. Sue Waldrop is the new membership chairman and Kay Millsap was unanimously voted in as the Co-op Coordinator. The executive board now consists of: President Anne Medsker; 1st Vice-Pres, Judy LaGamma; 2nd Vice, Pat Hammett; Secretary Gwen Knutson; Treasurer, Linda Peterson.

Pre-School

The first meeting of the 1978-1979 Forks Pre-School PTA met Monday, Sept. 10, with President Anne Medsker calling the meeting to order. There were 40 interested women in attendance who joined and became voting members.

The most important matter of the evening was the registration of children for the co-operative Pre-School. After the forms were filled out and categorized, there are now enough children for the three classes.

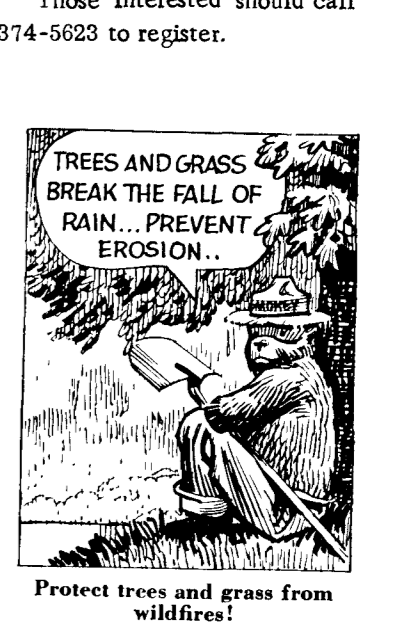

Florence Smith's class of sixteen 4 and 5 year olds will meet on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Mary Swanson's class of twelve 3 year olds will meet Wednesday and Friday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. New to the community and eager to teach our pre-schoolers is Mrs. Gary Osgood. She will have the second class of 4 year olds and meet on Tuesday and Thursdays from 12:30 to 2:30. Once again the co-op will be held in the Alder Grove Recreation Hall.

It was decided that tuition for the co-op would be payable at each PTA meeting. If you aren't able to attend, the mailing address is P.O. Box 6. A reminder that PTA meets the 2nd Tuesday of each month, and for each day you are late with the tuition there is a 25¢ per day late charge.

Women's exercise class

The Women's Fellowship of the Forks Congregational Church will be sponsoring a women's exercise class. The class, which is open to the public, will be held each Monday and Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 8:30 beginning October 1st.

Those interested should call 374-5623 to register.
