NOLS offers Newbery Award-Winning Young Adult Novel for Big Library Read, November 2-16

Borrow Indigenous fantasy “A Snake Falls to Earth” as an eBook or eAudiobook for free with worldwide digital book club

North Olympic Library System (NOLS) patrons can join readers around the world during Big Library Read, the world’s largest digital book club. From November 2-16, booklovers can access an eBook or eAudiobook of Darcie Little Badger’s Indigenous fantasy novel, A Snake Falls to Earth, with no waitlists or holds, and can participate in an online discussion. Visit anytime.overdrive.com or download the Libby app to borrow the Newbery Award-winning young adult novel. The free program only requires a NOLS library card to get started.

A Snake Falls to Earth tells the story of Nina, a Lipan Apache girl who always felt there was something more out there. She still believes in the old stories. Meanwhile, Oli is a cottonmouth kid from the land of spirits and monsters. Like all cottonmouths, he's been cast from home. He's found a new one on the banks of the bottomless lake. Nina and Oli have no idea the other exists. But a catastrophic event on Earth, and a strange sickness that befalls Oli's best friend, will drive their worlds together in ways they haven't been in centuries. And there are some who will kill to keep them apart.

Big Library Read is an international reading program that connects millions of readers around the world with an eBook through public libraries. A Snake Falls to Earth is the 29th selection of this program, which began in 2013 and takes place three times per year. For more information or assistance to get started, visit www.nols.org/big-library-read, call 360.417.8500, or email discover@nols.org.

NOLS readers can enjoy “A Snake Falls to Earth” as an eBook or eAudiobook for free with no waiting during Big Library Read, November 2-16.
