Kids in grades 4-7 can learn how to draw comics with Dana Sullivan

The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) invites kids in grades 4-7 to a drawing workshop focusing on comics and graphic novels, taught by artist and author Dana Sullivan.

"Draw Comix and Graphic Novels with Dana Sullivan" Schedule

- Forks Branch Library, Tuesday, July 11, 11am-12pm.
- Clallam Bay Branch Library, Tuesday, July 11, 3-4pm.
- Sequim Middle School, in the gym, Thursday, July 13, 4-5pm.
- Port Angeles Main Library, Thursday, July 20, 3-4pm.

No registration is needed and all supplies are provided by the Library. Event details can be found at nols.org/drawcomix.

Sullivan, who lives in Port Townsend, has written and illustrated several picture books and the award-winning graphic novel series "Dead Max Comix." Learn more about Sullivan at danajsullivan.com.

About the Summer Reading Program

This event is part of the “Find Your Voice” Summer Reading Program, happening now through August 26. Sign up for a Reading Challenge, earn a T-shirt, win prizes, and participate in fun events.

For more information about the Summer Reading Program, visit www.nols.org/srp, call 360.417.8500, or email discover@nols.org. The Summer Reading Program is generously supported by Friends of the Library groups at all four NOLS branches.
