The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) invites you to read "The Boys in the Boat" by Daniel James Brown and talk about it at a book discussion hosted by the Sequim Branch Library. Choose to join the in-person or virtual session, or attend both dates. On Monday, Dec. 11, 6-7pm, meet library staff and other readers for the book discussion in downtown Sequim at Locally Known Cowork, 112 W. Washington St. On Thursday, Dec. 14, 11am-12pm, join the online discussion on Zoom. Visit nols.org/boys-boat for event details and the Zoom link. No registration is needed.

Paperback copies of the book for participants to keep will be available to pick up at the Sequim Branch Library beginning Friday, Dec. 1, while supplies last. Additional copies and other formats are available for checkout, including large print books, audiobooks on CD, eBooks, and eAudiobooks.

For more information about this book discussion and other programs, visit www.nols.org, call 360.417.8500, or email discover@nols.org. This program is generously funded in part by Friends of Sequim Library.

Sequim Library is hosting in-person and virtual book discussions about “The Boys in the Boat.”
