The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) hosts three Book Discussion Group meetings monthly. Registration is not required. Learn more at nols.org/book-groups (or call or visit the library for assistance).

All are welcome – join every month or just drop in when you'd like. Paperback copies of the titles will be available for pick up any time after the current month's discussions at the Port Angeles Main Library, located at 2210 S. Peabody St., on the Bookmobile or at the Sequim Library Temporary Location, 609 W. Washington St. (see notations), on a first-come, first-served basis. Copies in other formats such as large print, book on CD, and eBook may also be available to request through the NOLS catalog.

April 2024 Book Discussion Schedule:

Second Wednesday Book Discussion Group:

"If Beale Street Could Talk" by James Baldwin

On Zoom: Wednesday, April 10, at 4 p.m. (paperback copies available now at the Port Angeles Main Library and on the Bookmobile; available April 11 at the Sequim Library Temporary Location).

Second Saturday Book Discussion Group:

"Bee People and the Bugs They Love" by Frank Mortimer

In Person: Saturday, April 13, at 3 p.m. at the Sequim Library Temporary Location (paperback copies available now on the Bookmobile; available April 1 at the Sequim Library Temporary Location).

Fourth Wednesday Book Discussion Group:

“Convenience Store Woman” by Sayaka Murata

In Person: Wednesday, April 24, at 6 p.m. in the Carver Room at the Port Angeles Main Library (paperback copies available at the Port Angeles Main Library).

Book Discussion Groups are generously supported by a donation made in memory of Sally Albiso, the Port Angeles Friends of the Library, and the Friends of Sequim Library. For more information about this and other programs at your library, visit www.nols.org, call 360.417.8500, or email discover@nols.org.

Join friends and neighbors for a book discussion!
