Re: Email Scam Warning

The North Olympic Library System (NOLS) has been made aware of several instances of local residents receiving emails incorrectly stating a person owes money to the Library. These emails are SPAM and no one should click on the links provided within them, or reply to the sender. These emails were phishing attacks and not associated with NOLS in any way.

If you receive a notice from the Library, here are a few things to consider:

- Email notices from NOLS are sent from LibraryNotice@nols.org.
- NOLS only charges for lost or damaged items. In those cases, bills are sent in the mail. NOLS does not charge overdue fines.
- If you need to pay a library fee online, visit www.nols.org directly and log in to your account.
- If you have questions about fees on your account, email ehelp@nols.org or call your local branch.

For more help with your NOLS account, visit your local NOLS branch, call 360.417.8500, or email ehelp@nols.org.

Beware of false Library fine accusations received through email.
